

A student who meets all of the criteria described below may petition the Dean of the College of Graduate Studies to remove from his/her graduate cumulative grade point average all those grades earned under the student's prior enrollment at The University of Toledo. The petition must first be approved through the appro-