Financial Responsibility, Student Bills and Payments

Each student is financially responsible for payment of fees and charges assessed to his/her student account. Student accounts are audited (reviewed)

Fees and Policies

These fees, policies and rules are effective for the 2012-2013 academic year, unless otherwise indicated. Fees are subject to change and additional fees may be included at a later date. The University reserves the right to make changes without advance notice. All fees are approved by the Board of Trustees.

Once a student registers for courses, he/she is responsible for all fees. All fees are billed and payable in U.S. Dollars. Any bank fees for processing foreign payments will be charged back to the student. Payment is due by the specified published due dates. Registration activity (adding or dropping courses) after the published due date that creates a balance due, should be paid the same day the activity occurs. Accounts must be kept current in order to maintain enrollment eligibility and receipt of official University documents and services i.e. transcripts.

Application Fees – Application fees are non-refundable
